

1 do not have authority to deal with employer-employee
2 relationships which are covered by the National Labor
3 Relations Act, and this would not change that.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Wheatley.

5 DELEGATE WHEATLEY: Thank you. That is all,
6 Mr. Chairman.

7 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Chabot.

8 DELEGATE CHABOT: Delegate Bothe, I understood
9 your replies to Delegates Child and Bennett to indicate 10 that most likely the legislature would have even in the 11 absence of this provision authority to effectuate the pro-
12 tections that you seek to provide by this provision.

13 Is this not true also of substantially all the 14 other matters that we have already approved in the Bill
15 of Rights?

16 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Bothe.

17 DELEGATE BOTHE: I think all of them. The 18 only places the legislature can't legislate is where it is 19 forbidden by the Constitution, and those areas where we 20 state affirmative right, we are doing no more than of 21 placing the stamp of fundamental directive on it, and the
